COURSE DESCRIPTION

Set in the shadow of the reconstructed Prussian City Palace, this course will give an overview of the history, the legacy and the memory of the "Iron Kingdom". It will embed Prussia into the history of both Germany and Europe more broadly – explaining the continuous rise of this entity by looking at its geopolitics, as well as its geography, economy, military, religion, science and culture.

We will follow the development of Prussia from a small duchy beyond the Eastern periphery of the Holy Roman Empire to one of the most powerful kingdoms at the center of Europe. Much of European history since the Thirty Years' War can indeed be understood as a function of this "Prussian Expansion", a fateful development that upended the traditional balance of power and ultimately led to the creation of a monster at the heart of Europe: Imperial Germany, hell-bent on acquiring the great power status it thought it deserved. But there is another, less tragic story that can also be told about Prussia: One of enlightened culture, of world-renowned education and universities, of state modernization and democratic rights that resonates until today. Between Königsberg, Potsdam and Berlin a particular worldview took shape that was both distinctly Prussian, German and cosmopolitan. Humboldt University was the center of this "Berlin Classicism", but we will look for this legacy (and how it is remembered) in other parts of the Prussian capitals as well.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

- describe Prussian political and social history since the 17th century
- understand the history of Europe as a function of that expansion
- embed Prussian history into German history more broadly
- contextualize remnants from the Prussian history of ideas present in Germany today
- analyze modern narratives and collective memory in Berlin regarding Prussia

ASSIGNMENT INFO

In order to gain 6 ECTS, you are required to attend class regularly, read all assigned texts, hold a brief presentation (20 min) and most importantly: to participate actively in our discussions. The topic of your presentation will be decided during our first class meeting. In addition, you ought to hand in an essay of at least 2.000 words as follow-up work of the course.

The final grade will be composed by evaluating the in-class presentation (30%) and the essay (40%). Active participation during class discussions will be taken into account as well (30%). A minimum of 80% class attendance is required.

Full ECTS points will only be awarded if all of the mentioned components are fulfilled.
